PUBLICATIONS OF THE BROOKLINE HISTORICAL SOCIETY (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Publications of the Brookline Historical Society The property next passed into the hands and occupancy of jeremy Gridley, Esq., but his deed is not found in the Suffolk Registry, probably was never recorded. He came to Brookline from Boston prior to 1755, but the precise date is not known. He was born in Boston March 10, 1701, graduated from Harvard College in 1725, studied law and was admitted to the bar, where he won the distinction of being called The Father of the Boston Bar. He held many town and public offices during his residence in the town, an account of which is given elsewhere. He died Sep tember 10, 1767. His brother, Richard Gridley, was administrator of his estate, which on December 29, 1768, he deeded to Walter Logan, of Roxbury, as appears by papers in Suffolk Probate Registry, but not found on the Registry of Deeds, and prob ably was never recorded. The next owner and occupant was Henry Hulton, Esq., one of the five Royal Commissioners of Customs appointed in 1767 by the British Government for the collection of the revenue at Boston. He arrived in this country from England in December, 1767, and took up his residence at the Gridley house in Brookline. He was an ostentatious person, fond of pomp and show, and often entertained parties of British officers at his house, who rode through the town, to and from Boston, attired in uniforms, with nodding plumes and gay trappings. It was a time of unrest in the public mind, and those scenes in connection with Hulton, who was looked upon by the quiet, sober people of the town as a disturber of their peace and...
