Joel Hefley (chairman of the subcommittee) presiding. Opening Statement Of Hon. Joel Hefley, A Representative From Colorado, Chairman, Military Installations And Facilities Subcommittee Mr. Hefley. The Subcommittee on Military Installations and Facilities will come to order. I apologize for running a little late, as we are trying to move this cumbersome ship toward the August recess. We have a lot of demands right now, but I really appreciate the panels coming today. The Subcommittee on Military Installations and Facilities meets today to continue its examination of the current state of military housing for both families and unaccompanied personnel, as well as other facilities crucial to enhancing the quality of life for military personnel and their families. The subcommittee meets at a significant moment. We hope to file a conference report shortly on H.R. 3230, the National Defense Authorization Act for 1997. This afternoon, the conferees on the Military Construction Appropriations Act for the coming fiscal year will meet to consider their portion of the bill. It is my expectation that the legislation which the Congress will produce will significantly enhance the President s request for troop housing, military family housing, child development centers, and other quality of life infrastructure. On a bipartisan basis, this subcommittee, along with our counterparts on the Appropriations Committee, have worked hard to find the extra dollars to provide...
