Excerpt: . . . a source of income to the Board, and we take this opportunity of acknowledging the kindness of Rev. JOHN B. THOMPSON, D. D. , who donated to the Board the copyright of the Book held by him and refused payment for the same--even for his incidental expenses, his desire being to leave with the Church of his fathers a token of affectionate remembrance. The Board tenders him hearty thanks for his gift, with best wishes for prosperity in his new field. The other half of the copyright was purchased from the Musical editor for the sum of one thousand dollars, so that the Board now owns the whole. The Board also acknowledges the kindness of SAMUEL B. SCHIEFFELIN, Esq. , who has made it more deeply his debtor by an additional gift of a set of stereotpye plates of a valuable book called An Index of the Bible. DONATIONS FROM THE BOARD. Last year we reported gifts of catechisms, tracts and books for the use of churches, families and Sabbath schools to the amount of seven hundred and thirty-six dollars. This year our advance in the same direction has been to the amount of one thousand five hundred dollars. THE SOWNN AND MISSION MONTHLY. This publication, issued at the rate of ten thousand copies a month, continues in favor, if we may judge from many expressions of approbation made known to us from different quarters of the Church; but since it is designed to...
