THE GOOD LIFE U: EXECUTING THE GRAND PLAN (PAPERBACK)

Outskirts Press, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Humanitarian Elvis D. Good acknowledges children may only be 25 of our population but he understands they re 100 of our future. Elvis Good and Neil Moore establish The Good Life Foundation to support Elvis worldwide humanitarian efforts. While working around the globe Elvis develops a magnificent plan to engage young people worldwide to live and learn together in a confined environment, blending beliefs and cultures into a unique combination of global understanding, peace and prosperity. Elvis goal to reach as many cultures as possible bridging the gap of cultural differences is cut short by his unexpected, untimely death in a plane crash. Elvis immediate family and close friends agree to execute his magnificent plan honoring his achievements and fulfilling his legacy. Elvis ten grandchildren have only 36-months to turn a used cruise ship into the largest most spectacular floating University in the world. They must gain accreditation, develop curriculum, hire professors, instructors and ship staff all while selecting forty foreign students from ten different countries and fifty students from the USA to populate the freshman class. Will they overcome the many challenges and obstacles to make the 36-month deadline for the freshman year launch? Join the Good Family as they work to fulfill Grandpa s legacy and make an impact on the world in Elvis name. Our Grandfather is a legend, His Grand Plan will become legendary, Every legend is a journey, Every journey has a story, This is ours, come join us.The Good Family.
