ANAGRAMA, Spain, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: Spanish . Brand New Book. Tony Webster and his crew met Adrian at boarding school. Hungry for sex and literature, they experienced adolescence together and they promised to stay friends forever. But when Adrian's life takes a tragic turn, they all, especially Tony, look the other way. Now Tony lives alone in quiet and prosperous retirement, after an opaque life that bore little resemblance to what he fantasised about in his youth. One day he receives a letter from his lawyer: Sarah Ford, the mother of his first girlfriend, Veronica, has left him 500 pounds and an envelope containing a manuscript. He receives the money and a letter from Sarah, but the manuscript never arrives. Tony discovers it is Adrian's diary, that are now in Veronica's hands and she has no intention of handing it over. These diaries are the dark, enigmatic heart of a magnificent novel, awarded the prestigious Man Booker Prize. It traps the reader like a detective novel, it is an investigation into memory and the moral that causes an explosion of intimate apocalypse (Boyd Tomkin, The Independent). A short book, but not light. Julian Barnes reveals crystalline truths that have taken an entire life to form (Liesl Schillinger, The New York Times). Original, fertile, memorable (Justin Jordan, The Guardian).
