ALPHABET YEAR (PAPERBACK)

Resource Publications (CA), United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. These poems started with a bag of children s beach toys--primary-colored alphabet sand-molds--and a quiet afternoon. They ended up needing a spreadsheet to keep track of the first words. Love is the L word for all the disorderly abecedarians because it creates a thread with which to gather all the ribbons of art, religion, human cruelty, anger, and the infinite intrusions by the random that both buffer us from a frequently distressing world and buffet us with that same world s constant noise. Because the proper abecedarians have a more orderly arrangement with the universe simply by virtue of progressing through the alphabet the way it s supposed to line up, the L words shift and wiggle even as the poems fun-house-mirror each other. Equal parts Scrabble, sex, Tarot, crossword, acid trip, and theology, pureed in a phrontistery mixer set at warp speed, her poems are difficult, repetitive, uncanny, and wrong in all the right ways, like something Circe conjured up to pass the time. --Richard Peabody, Editor...
