

Sight and Insight in Genesis: A Semantic Study (Hardback)

By Talia Sutscover

Sheffield Phoenix Press, United Kingdom, 2013. Hardback. Condition: New. New.. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Sight and Insight shows how prominent are terms from the semantic field of sight in the book of Genesis. They are constantly found in openings, at turning points, and as constituents in place-names and personal names. Because of their presence at strategic points in the plot of Genesis, words of sight enhance cohesion among the narratives of the book. From the beginning of time, according to Genesis, there have been numerous instances of seeing on the part of both God and humans. But as Genesis progresses, God gradually becomes more hidden and his seeing gives place to human perception. These observations are built upon a sound theoretical foundation, outlined in the opening chapter, which provides a clear definition of the concept of semantic field and an explanation of related semantic terms such as frames and prototypes. Subsequent chapters identify the words that can be assigned to the sight field, examine the deployment of the sight field in individual narratives in Genesis, and study the sight field over larger sections of the book. This is the sixth volume of the...
