Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 86: March 27, 1924 Apostle means that faith is that faculty of the human soul through which and by which a person becomes vividly aware of unseen things. when Paul talked about this evidence of things not seen he talked about a very vivid, unusual awareness of the existence of unseen things. In this essay he refers to Moses as an example of a person who had this vivid certainty of the existence of the unseen. Of Moses, Paul says: By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured as seeing him who is invisible. That is to say, Moses by reason of the purity of his life and the nobility of his mind, was so close to God that he could almost see His Majesty on high. That is faith. That is the evidence of things not seen. This absolute certainty of God s existence is the thing which is most needed in this world to-day. Ever since the conclusion of the recent World War, statesmen,...
