By Ann Marie Duquette

Outskirts Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Jacquelyn Hersom (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Who would believe a little dog and a baby could have such an adventure? What sort of trouble could possibly happen to a little Yorkshire terrier and a baby boy out trick-or-treating with their grandpa? Sam and Riley discover that strange things can happen on a dark Halloween night in Sebago, Maine. Sam, the Yorkie, takes charge when he and baby Riley are mistaken for real owls. He is determined to return Riley safely back to Grandpa Duke. The lyrical, rhyming text, endearing characters and adorable illustrations are sure to make this story a favorite for young children. Author s note: I wrote this book after my grandson, Riley, was born with a rare genetic disorder called Peroxisomal Biogenesis Disorder - Zellweger Spectrum Disorders (PBD-ZSD). With this book, I honor his strength, gentle spirit and remarkable disposition. I hope many children will enjoy this fun adventure as a dedication to our sweet, blue eyed Riley. Sam is our Yorkshire terrier, a tough little pup, with lots of personality. Together, this affectionate pair create a heartwarming combination. For further information...
