

The Book of Tea

By Kakuzo Okakura

Echo Library, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 124 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This enchanting 1906 work introduced the West to the art of the Japanese national drink through the philosophy of teaism as an aesthetic that permeates Japanese thinking and ritual. From tea ideals to the serenity of the tearoom, from the beverage's influence on Zen and Taoist concepts to its infusion in the ceremony of flower arranging, this is an essential introduction not merely to a drink but to an entire way of life. It will delight tea lovers and students of Japanese culture alike. Japanese scholar and writer KAKUZO OKAKURA (1863-1913) helped spread interest in Asian art and culture to the Western world. He is also the author of Ideals of the East (1883).
