Jyl Scislow, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. MORAL HAZARD combines murder mystery with the frenzy of Wall Street during a financial crisis unlike the world has ever seen. The game of greed, once touted by Wall Street as good, has become the game of risk, camouflaged beneath ethical conduct for the sake of its shareholders. Quid pro quo, practiced within the mortgage industry has reached the point of debauchery. Dispatched to the financial district in Manhattan, NYPD Inspector Michael Halloway encounters more than just the mutilated body of Gemma Woodrow. At first, the murder appears to have been a sexual assault, until the medical examiner confirms that Gemma was dead when her assailant inflicted the wounds. Halloway discovers a darker side of the mortgage industry in which she was employed-that prostitution exists between the mortgage brokers and wholesalers. He suspects that the murder was staged and in his pursuit of the owner of a large investment bank, uncovers information that threatens his life. What Halloway does not expect is that an addiction he battled with years ago is about to emerge as he sinks deeper into the dissolute world he seeks to condemn. Money schemes, murder, and moral dilemma produce a sexy thriller both passionate and intriguing.
