WITH MOORE AT CORUNNA UNDER WELLINGTONS COMMAND: TALES OF THE PENINSULAR WAR

Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 442 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.1in.G. A. Henty had a knack for condensing the complex issues of a war into a single book, but even he realized that the scope of the Peninsular War was so extensive, that a single book would not do it justice. Therefore, it is only natural that Hentys two books on the subject, With Moore at Corunna and Under Wellingtons Command, be combined into a single volume. The Peninsular War was one of the more colorful and involved wars ever fought, filled with many battles, sieges, colorful characters, and back-and-forth action. The French invaded Spain and then set their sights on Portugal. Responding to the provocation, the British sent Sir John Moore to thwart Napoleons ambitions. Experience the Peninsular War by following the exploits of a fictional young Irishman, Terrence OConnor, as he rises to the rank of Colonel while leading a Portuguese unit attached to the British army. This tale is a wonderful mix of adventure and history that makes excellent reading for older children and adults. Included in this edition are geographical, historical, and explanatory footnotes which will help the modern reader to savor this G. A. Henty classic. This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
