This book usually ship within 10-15 business days and we will endeavor to dispatch orders quicker than this where possible. Brand New Book. From acclaimed poet and novelist Jill Bialosky, the New York Times bestselling exploration of her sister s suicide and the lifelong impact it had on those left behind-- a beautifully composed, deeply reflective work (Publishers Weekly). It is so nice to be happy. It always gives me a good feeling to see other people happy.It is so easy to achieve. --Kim s journal entry, May 3, 1988 On the night of April 15, 1990, Jill Bialosky s twenty-one-year-old sister Kim came home from a bar in downtown Cleveland. She argued with her boyfriend on the phone. Then she took her mother s car keys, went into the garage, closed the garage door. She climbed into the car, turned on the ignition, and fell asleep. Her body was found the next morning by the neighborhood boy her mother hired to cut the grass. Those are the simple facts, but the act of suicide is anything but simple. For twenty years, Bialosky has lived with the grief, guilt, questions, and confusion unleashed by Kim s suicide. Now, in a remarkable work of literary nonfiction, she re-creates with unsparing honesty her sister s inner life, the events and emotions that led her to take her life on this particular night. In doing so, she opens a window on the nature of suicide itself, our own reactions and responses to it--especially the impact a suicide has on those who remain behind. Combining Kim s diaries with family history and memoir, drawing on the works of doctors and psychologists as well as writers from Melville and Dickinson to Sylvia Plath and...
