RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 398 pages. Original publisher: Gaithersburg, MD: U. S. Dept. of Commerce, National Institute of Standards and Technology, 2007 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)234299939 Subject: Federal government -- Computer networks -- Security measures -- United States. Excerpt: . . . Special Publication 800-53A Guide for Assessing the Security Controls in Federal Information Systems The guidelines provided in this special publication are applicable to all federal information systems other than those systems designated as national security systems as defined in 44 U. S. C. , Section 3542. The guidelines have been broadly developed from a technical perspective to complement similar guidelines for national security systems and may be used for such systems with the approval of the Director of National Intelligence (DNI), the Secretary of Defense (SECDEF), or the Chairman of the Committee on National Security Systems (CNS), or their designees. State, local, and tribal governments, as well as private sector organizations that compose the critical infrastructure of the United States, are also encouraged to consider the use of these guidelines, as appropriate. Organizations should use as a minimum, NIST Special Publication 800-53A in conjunction with an approved information system security plan in developing a viable security assessment plan for producing and compiling the information necessary to determine the effectiveness of the security controls employed in the information system. This publication has been developed with the intention of enabling organizations to tailor and supplement the basic assessment procedures provided. The assessment procedures should be used as a starting point for and as input to the security assessment plan. In developing effective security assessment plans, organizations should take into consideration existing information about the security controls to be assessed (e. g. , r. . . This...
