By William Ogilvie

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from To the Land of Gold, Vol. 1: Don't Forget That Vancouver, B. The Terminus of the Canadian Pacific Railway, Is the Base of Supplies and Controls All the Routes to the Klondike and British Columbia Gold Fields Hon. Col. Baker, Minister of Mines, who occupied the Chair, in introducing Mr. Ogilvie, remarked jokingly that the reason all were assembled was that Mr. Kains was prospecting for gold - and locating his old friend Mr. Ogilvie in town had prevailed upon him to give this lecture for the benefit of St. James Church, with which Mr. Kains is prominently identified. That was the reason a charge had been made at the door, the collection being taken with the consent of Hon. Clifford Sifton, Mr. Ogilvie's chief. Col. Baker referred to Mr. Ogilvie's great services as an explorer in the North during the past ten years, for which he had received the medal of the Royal Geographical Society and had been made a Fellow of that celebrated body. After speaking of Mr. Ogilvie's great services to Canada, Col. Baker...
