There seems to be no doubt that Macmonnies has been unfortunate with his latest statue. He isn t likely to Mac-monnies on it. Voltaire and Emilie. I have been reading about Voltaire and his divine Emilie, who it seems was another man s wife, but that made her none the less divine to Voltaire. They agreed to call the chateau in which they lived a- little heaven upon earth --made so by their billing and cooing, of course. No doubt it was so until the novelty of it wore off; then they took to sitting at opposite ends of the table, holding their noses, I presume, though the book doesn t say so. Then Voltaire would get mad clear through, and being a poet would hit...
