By Joseph E Hines Ph D

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A Personal Walk is a book about creating a personal relationship with Christ. The book explores each step using the journey of a man who was born in a middle-class home with trappings of success, graduated from the Naval Academy, traveled the world as a Naval Officer and was seemingly successful in his own right, yet a man who was spiritually lost. Through the use of the steps this man found a personal relationship with Christ was healed and overcame divorce, alcoholism and loss of career, and an ego that often got in his way. A Personal Walk with Christ is a simple method of utilizing 10 principles to establish a relationship with Christ. Developing a relationship with Christ comes from knowing what God s Vision is for your life, believing in him, gaining knowledge of the Word of God to guide your steps, obtaining confidence from the Word and the ability to focus on Christ, while energetically and enthusiastically living a life pleasing to Christ. As a Christian, speaking to and hearing Christ is the cornerstone of developing...
