The New York State Free Employment Bureau has thrown every safeguard around the interests of both employer and employee. We have insisted, in cases where help is wanted in the country, that the railroad fare shall be paid to the destination and that the employer shall meet the employee to conduct her to the place of employment at the other end. On the other hand, we have insisted that all applicants who desire to have their labor placed shall keep any appointment made, and any one failing to do so forfeits the use of this office. Every effort has been made to ascertain the qualifications of applicants for the work sought. Letters asking...
