I, Walt Whitman

By Stephen Smoke

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Michael Grace, a recently laid-off writer, is a respected fixture on the LA coffeehouse circuit, where he reads his poetry, excerpts from his well-reviewed but under-read novels, and performs original songs. During a psychic reading-a gift from his previous employer-Michael comes to believe that it s possible he is the reincarnation of Walt Whitman. The next day Albert Brennan, a lawyer who s also a fan, tells Michael that a mutual friend told him that Michael is Walt Whitman reincarnated. Even though Michael tells Albert that he s not sure that s true, Albert presents Michael with a plan: He offers to sue the publishers of Walt Whitman s work for 150 years of back royalties. Although Stephen Smoke is well known for his psychological thriller and mystery novels, as well as the non-fiction Bill of Responsibilities series, he also has written two well-received inspirational novels (Trick of the Light-optional for film by Hemdale Films, which won Best Picture Academy Awards for The Last Emperor of China and Platoon ; and Cathedral of the Senses, a moving and...
