

African, Arab and Asian financial organizations

By Daniel Döring

GRIN Verlag Jul 2008, 2008. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 210x149x2 mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Scholarly Research Paper from the year 2007 in the subject Politics - International Politics - General and Theories, grade: 1,2, -, 15 entries in the bibliography, language: English, abstract: African Financial Organizations - Africa is the second largest continent of the world. At the same time one could say that it is the least developed of all continents. Poor infrastructure and a difficult geographical situation in large parts of the continent (vast deserts, impenetrable primeval forests) complicate intra-African trade. Furthermore, Africa's cultural and ethnical diversity leads to language barriers and conflicts of interests, often resulting in civil wars. These are only some factors making the establishment of Africa-wide organizations really difficult. Therefore, we decided to concentrate on only one African sub-region, which is West Africa. In the following we will thus introduce some important West African financial organizations and afterwards present their most important cooperation project: the creation a West African Monetary Union similar to the Eurozone by the end of 2009. Arab Financial Organizations The Arab region includes 23 North African and Middle Eastern member...

READ ONLINE
[1.91 MB]

Reviews

Here is the finest publication we have read right up until now. It is actually written in easy words instead of difficult to understand. It's been written in a remarkably easy way in fact it is only right after I finished reading this book in which basically changed me, modify the way I really believe.

-- Prof. Vanessa Smitham V

A high quality pdf and also the typeface used was exciting to see. It absolutely was written really properly and useful. I am quickly could get a delight of looking at a composed pdf.

-- Justina Kunze