Albert Pikes Poems: With Introductory Biographical Sketch I need offer no apology for presenting to the public this volume of Gen. Albert Pikes Poems; the poems are too good to be lost, and I wonder that a collection of the authors writings has not been published for general circulation long since. Being a great admirer of those of the poems which I had read, I sought and obtained the sanction of the celebrated authors daughter, Miss Lillian Pike, since become Mrs. Roome, to publish same, and induced her to write the accompanying splendid biographical sketch of her honored father.
