The Convention: -- How shall we improve the dairy Interests of Illinois? The importance of this question will be felt if we consider the vast amount of money invested in the dairy business. We have no statistics showing the amount invested in the State of Illinois. It has been stated that there arc 1 022 butter and cheese factories, 460,000 cows, and 1,880,000 acres of land in the State of New York devoted to this interest. If the factories are estimated at $5,000 each, the cows at (10 per head, and the land at 150 per acre, then we have a total sum of 592,720,000 invested by the dairymen of New York. If to this we add the value of the horses, wagons, agricultural implements, etc., required for the prosecution of this branch of industry, we shall find it will amount to at least $100,000,000...
