Excerpt from American Antiquities: Read Before a Joint Meeting of the Pioneer Associations of the Counties of Franklin, Muskingum and Licking, at Their Celebration of the National Anniversary, at Pataskala, Ohio, July 4, 1870 When called upon by Mr. Smucker, Secretary of the Licking County Pioneer Association, to treat more fully in my Pioneer Papers on this mysterious fort and mound question, I said, and thought, that there was nothing in that on which I could write an article that would be of any interest to the public. It was a subject on which I had read and thought but little, and what little attention I had given to the subject, had impressed upon my mind the impropriety of any attempt on my part to penetrate the darkness or solve the mystery with which they are surrounded; because men of science, and the most profound antiquarians of our land had exhausted their skill in vain research to solve the mystery of their existence; military men had searched in vain, for a system of tactics adapted to their situation and character. Almost every effort had but tended to increase the mystery and intensify the gloom with which they were surrounded. Hence I dreaded to say anything about them, further than to merely mention the fact of their existence in a portion of Union Township. But this did not seem to satisfy Mr. Smucker. He thought the subject had not been exhausted, and wanted a paper on the mound question. Having been quite familiar, in early life, with the location of several fine mounds in the northeast part of Union, as well as a few in Granville Township, and knowing that...
