A Screenplay by Neil S. Reddy drawing on the works and life of William S. Burroughs. Tina a dancer and single mother is struggling to provide for her daughter Essa. So when she gets a job at a retro GO-Go bar she thinks her luck has changed but the bar is contains a converted Cloudbuster machine which can open a gateway into Interzone, the troubled living imagination of William S. Burroughs - when Essa accidentally passes through the gate and gets lost in Interzone Tina has to risk her life to save her from a dimension that holds the heights of human imagination and the depths insect depravity. Aided and hunted by characters from Burroughs books she has to find her daughter before the dimension closes forever.
