GRASSROOT POLITICS IN INDIA

Mittal Publications, New Delhi, 2000. N.A. Book Condition: New. Xii+127pp The modern politics began in India around the last quarter of nineteenth century. The process of social and political awakening that gave rise to this new style of politics developed uneven rates and degrees in different communities and regions. However, following independence and with the introduction of electoral politics, a more intimate urban-rural interaction and attendant friction as well as integration began which modelled itself to reconciliatory politics with planned...
