A woman s funeral inaugurated the beginning of Abraham s ownership in Canaan. As the mournful procession passed up the field and beneath the spreading trees of Machpelah, to the cave which was to be Sarah s last earthly resting-place, did there pass before the tear-dimmed eyes of her husband a vision of the future, when one of his children s children should be crowned as king in the neighbouring city of Hebron? Under the teaching of the Spirit of God he looked for something even higher - for a city which hath foundations, whose Builder and Maker is God. Yet the purpose of God was to be fulfilled literally. And as the long years passed away, others beside Sarah were interred in the same spot, while the body of Jacob s beloved wife Rachel, was laid...
