Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Terry Starko is hoping for a change in his luck by heading to, of all places, Detroit. This middle-aged, unemployed engineer is returning to the town where he grew up for a job interview. All his life he d prospered, thanks to a series of fortunate misunderstandings. Now he s split from his wife, and this trip might give him a break from the bill collectors. Nailing the job interview turns out to be the least of his worries. As soon as he sets foot in the town he d fled twenty years before, everybody is looking for him as if he d never left: his hot new step-mother, the crack dealer from the old neighborhood, and even the Greek Restaurant Owners Association. It all seems to be connected to the best friend Terry didn t know he had, a guy who d introduced Harlem Globetrotters trick plays to the Hamtramck Catholic High School Basketball League, and started a street gang war over bootleg beer from Colorado. From one minute to the next Terry doesn t know if he ll end up in a coffin next to his best friend, or end up the new Loose Meat Sandwich King of Hamtramck. Terry s story is a fun, nostalgic adventure in a town where high school garage bands compose songs about Richard Nixon and the Ukrainian national anthem. In the end, it answers the long-pondered question, What is a loose meat sandwich, anyway?.
