Ava Cook is a vibrant senior in college, is about to be, thrust into two different worlds that she never knew existed; a world of sacrifice, bloodlust, power, and immortality that she will likely never return from. However, there are two very distinct reasons that might make her never want return to normal. Damen her professor, the man who saves her life, haunts her dreams, and is literally off limits to her. He is there every moment she needs him, making her confused with his longing touch. Then she meets Travis who is large, masculine, possessive, and one of the most handsome men she has ever seen and he has eyes for her alone, and has few secrets of his own. Ava must fight her feelings for both of them, while Damen and Travis are forced to work together from opposite sides to keep her safe from Braden, who certain that Ava knows the key to ultimate power, immortality and knowledge of the Aztecs. All of them are certain that she is the key to unlocking the legends of these powers, but Ava does not know herself what they are after; all the while being forced to choose between love and safety, and in whose arms she can find it. Enter the world of the Timeless Generation. Learn their ways, secrets, and struggles of their survival as a people who have existed for thousands of years without discovery. Wonderful story with in depth characters in a new type of fantasy setting. Elsha Fornefeld is a promising new author. -Behind the Scenes Author A book I couldnt put down and shared with my friends before I was half...
