The Know-It-All

By Jacobs, A. J.

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: Random House UK | One Man's Humble Quest to Become the Smartest Person in the World | A. J. Jacobs tells the story of his bizarre, hilarious and seemingly impossible quest to read the Encyclopaedia Britannica from A to Z. | On leaving school or university, you feel pretty pleased with yourself. You've learnt a lot, you're well-read and you know a whole bunch of obscure facts guaranteed at some point to appear in the questions on Mastermind or University Challenge. Then you get a job, and ten years later you're more eloquent and eager to argue about Britney and Big Brother than Beckett and the Brontes. Sound familiar? Well it happened to AJ Jacobs too. As an editor at Esquire, Jacobs had built up a rather impressive knowledge of celebrity trivia - and the cure was going to take a long time. While others might take to reading a broadsheet at the weekend, Jacobs chose to read the Encyclopaedia Britannica. All 33,000 pages of it. Bill Bryson meets Schott's Original Miscellany meets Woody Allen. Part assemblage of fascinating trivia, part journey through adulthood, all laugh-out-loud funny. | Format: Paperback | Language/Sprache: english | 285 gr | 200x134x27 mm...

Reviews

Absolutely essential go through publication. This can be for all who state there was not a worthy of looking at. Its been printed in an remarkably basic way and it is just right after i finished reading this book through which in fact altered me, modify the way i think.
