Bogardus, April 30th, 1865 in the R. P. D. C. At Unionville, Westchester Co., New York Would be unlimited were it not for the purpose of God in Christ. God, for the sake of Christ s atonement, and in answer to the prayers of His Church, has hitherto so re strained, and will continue so to restrain the operations of Satan, and so to regulate the manifestations of human de pravity, and so to ward off, alleviate or overrule the pesti lence that walketh in darkness, and the destruction that wasteth at noon-day, and the countless other calamities to which our race is heir, that they will result in the fullest possible exhibition of His own glory, and the best possible good of those who believe in His son, and in the triumph of good over evil, of righteousness over wickedness, of liberty over oppression, of truth over error, and of light over dark ness - a triumph which will be all the more magnificent and glorious because it shall be won by stern con?icts, and shall be covered, so to speak, with the sweat and the dust, the wounds and the blood of hard fought battles.
