His father was robbed and murdered then died in Jake s arms, killed by two hired killers.  I saw something that made my blood boil. What I saw across the clearing, maybe a quarter mile away at the tree line was two men apparently beating against Dad s wagon with an axe or tool. I could see no sign of Dad. If I rode across the open, grass filled clearing I would make an easy target for the two men but what else could I do. Hugging close to the horse and with my rifle in my right hand they looked up and began firing at me.  I followed Abby and out of the blue said; When we meet up out west one day I m going to marry you. I don t know how or when but keep watching for me. Her expression was anything but friendly. You ve got your nerve. I don t even know who you are! she stated flatly and moved towards the door. Don t hold your breath.  At that moment a crashing noise came from behind us and turning we saw a grizzly charging towards Nick and Tag. Tag began a hideous bark that we had never heard before, but the bear was focused on Nick. As I pumped a shell into my Winchester, the bear swiped his great forepaw to Nick s left arm and side, throwing him to the ground. At that moment Tag ran between Nick and the bear becoming the new target.  It was late afternoon. The shadows were long in the canyon and I stood studying the spot. I will call...
