During the Annual Seven-day Prophetic Prayer Meeting of December 25-31 of 2007, members of our church fasted and prayed this revelation and appropriated it for themselves and their families. It was later developed into a series of Bible studyteaching for the first quarter of 2008. Most members not only keyed into the revelation but also adopted a very aggressive disposition towards it. The result was an unprecedented physical and financial breakthrough in the church. Year 2008 became the most prolific year for child-bearing in our church. Many had miracles of spectacular conceptions and deliveries of new babies. Several years of affliction of barrenness were removed in many lives. In addition, there were incredible financial breakthroughs for members most of whom received the grace and enablement to start their own businesses, and launched into new careers with outstanding results. The House on the Rock was also divinely visited. We broke ground on our New Sanctuary project - The Family Life Center. Even when the global economic downturn came in October of 2008, members finances and the church project did not witness a downturn but an upward swing because members passionately believed what God had said and faithfully applied the principles they have been exposed to in the series of teaching on fruitfulness. God is indeed faithful to His word. Sometime in December 2008, the Holy Spirit ministered to me to document our experience as a church during that season in a book as a blessing for as...
