Go get it, stack bread, focus on you and forget these niggas was drilled into Leah s head ever since she was able to take her first steps. With a no nonsense mother in her corner along the way, Leah was molded into the ultimate hustler on all levels. After her high school love Ceontay played her like a fiddle, she was more determined than ever to be the baddest chick that the city of Louisville had ever seen. Once her best friend Ro came in to the picture, the two were unstoppable taking niggas for everything that they were worth and sparing none in their wrath. Brothers Bloc and Bakari recently moved to Louisville Kentucky after Bloc was released from prison, alongside their best friend Swift. The plan was to gradually grow their drug empire while keeping a low profile. What they didn t expect to do was fall hard for the first two women that they even considered giving up their time to. While the chase for love was real, there s a hater in the background just waiting for the chance to destroy everything that the brothers have worked so hard for. Bakari has a rough time getting through to Leah. In his mind, she s everything that he could have hoped for but it was just taking longer than normal to get her to submit to his love. Eventually he grows tired of her disrespect for his gangster and has to put Leah on pause. Is Leah willing to let down her hard core exterior or will she lose the best thing since sliced bread with her stubborn attitude? On top of that, a war is brewing...
