Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from History of the Presbyterian Church, of Uniontown, Pa Remember The Days Of Old. - Deut., chap. 32 verse 7. This passage is from the parting song of Moses, in which he recounts the marvelous dealings of God with his people. It is a standing order to all the congregation of the Children of Israel, to have constantly in mind their history, as an indication of Gods Mill to them in the future. This command occurs often in the Bible. That God s people obeyed it, we have abundant testimony. David says: We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us what work Thou didst in their days, in the times of old. That the injunction is still to be obeyed, and for what object, is taught clearly in the opening part of that historical discourse, the 78th Psalm. At no previous period since the planting of our beloved Zion on these Western shores, has the mind of our Church been turned, as now, to the study of our history. This centennial year naturally awakens an unusual interest in the past, but in addition to this, we are urged by the action of the General Assembly to prepare historical discourses of the Churches. Recognizing the power of these influences and motives, still it has been chiefly because of an interest in the work itself that this discourse has been prepared. May it be profitable for our admonition in regard to danger and for instruction in the path of duty. Realizing fully the difficulties of the undertaking because of my brief residence among you, and having but little personal knowledge of the men,...
