

Villa Gardens: How to Plan and How to Plant Them (Paperback)

By W S Rogers

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is likely to be a useful volume; it appeals to a large class, for villas are without number, and mostly have a bit of ground worth cultivating, while their occupiers are commonly in want of some hints and suggestions. With most, if not all, of Mr. Rogers s counsels we agree. We might suggest, however, that he should have definitely recommended the pear for planting. The pear is a handsome tree, with fine foliage, while the apple commonly, and the plum often, has a somewhat scrubby look. Why not a standard peach instead of an almond? Its blossom is about as good, and it may bear fruit. -The Spectator, Volume 89 [1902].
