Not illustrated. 1845 Excerpt: . . . ambassador also was to proceed first to the Sultan, to obtain his intercession with England, and I need not appeal for further evidence than that, as to the utility of the noble mission of the Stoddart and Conolly Committee. My letter of the 6th was well received, when read to them, by the Stoddart and Conolly Committee, which was formed September 7th, 1843; and that body of gentlemen manifested a most enthusiastic interest in my mission. Captain Grover was installed as its President, a most necessary measure, as it enabled him to put himself in communication with Government, and to demand all necessary aid. It further emboldened me in my design, as I had then to deal with a recognised organ of communication. Captain Grover had informed the Committee that I was prepared to start when 5007. was raised for that object, but that he...
