Excerpt: . of the time, labor, and skill required, and the responsibility and risk they incur, that the public should award them more than a mere consulting fee. Sect. 3. There is no profession by the members of which eleemosynary services are more freely dispensed than they are by physicians; but justice demands that some limits should be placed to the claims upon such offices at their hands. Poverty, professional brotherhood, the benevolent and scantily remunerated occupation of the individual patient, and certain of the public duties referred to in Sect. 1 of this article, should always be recognized as presenting A valid claims for gratuitous services. But neither institutions endowed by the public or by rich individuals, societies for mutual benefit, for the insurance of lives, or for analogous purposes, nor any profession or occupation, can be admitted to possess such privilege. Nor can it be justly expected of physicians to furnish certificates of inability to serve on juries, or perform military duty, or to certify to the state of health of parties wishing to insure their lives, obtain pensions, or the like, without a pecuniary acknowledgment; but to indigent persons, such professional services should always be cheerfully and freely accorded. ARTICLE II. OBLIGATIONS OF THE PUBLIC TO PHYSICIANS. Section I. The benefits accruing to the public, directly and indirectly, from the active and constant labors and beneficence of the medical profession, are so numerous and important that physicians are justly entitled to the...
