Excerpt: .brought in the district court of Rio Grande county. The complaint alleges that the defendant violated 1 of the ordinances of the town of Monte Vista, in the county of Rio Grande, state of Colorado, entitled An ordinance concerning intoxicating liquors, which said ordinance was passed and adopted on the 4th day of March, 1899, and had still remained and still is in force and effect, and to the damage of the plaintiff in the sum of three hundred dollars ($300.00). The complaint further states the title of the action and specifies the name of the court and county in which the action is brought. The appellant, as defendant below, filed its answer denying the allegations of the complaint. At the trial it objected to the impaneling of the jury and to the introduction of testimony upon the ground that the complaint did not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action . The trial court properly overruled the objection. The complaint complied with the provisions of our code specifying what the complaint should contain. It was not obnoxious to a demurrer, but was obnoxious to a motion to make it more definite and certain, which the defendant below did not make. The evidence was in support of the allegations of the complaint and the defendant below was in no way prejudiced by its form. The question of the jurisdiction of the trial court is presented for the first time in this court...
