Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Reminiscences and Early History of Old Peru But here amid the green old trees A home we sought and found. Oft through our dwellings wintry blasts Would rush with shriek and moan, We cared not - though they were but frail, We felt they were our own. The history of Peru and Ausable are inseparable. The town of Peru was formed from Plattsburgh and Willsborough December 28, 1792, and included the towns of Ausable and Black Brook. These two were taken off in 1839, since which time there have been no changes. The history of Clinton and Frank lin counties, published by J. W. Lewis Co., in 1880, says that one hundred years ago the town of Peru was an unbroken wilderness; which would mean one hundred and thirty-three years from the present time. While we do not believe in the wor ship of our ancestors, yet we ought to keep the memory green of those who endured the privations of pioneer life, who subdued the forests, built the roads, bridged the streams, built many of the houses in which we live, and trod the streets just as we do today, and made possible a better civilization for us than they enjoyed. The central part of Peru was included in Zephen iah Platt s Great Location of acres. It was bounded on the north by the present town of Schuy ler Falls, by Newcomb s and Bell s Patents; east by Newcomb s and Bell s Patents and Lake Champlain; south by the town of Ausable, and west by Wat son s and Thorp s Patents; the main street of Peru village being very near the dividing line of Platt s...
