The circumstances connected with colonization in Africa, and with the efforts of the friends of the cause in Pennsylvania and the United States generally, during the past year, furnish abundant reasons for congratulation to the great human family, however diversified by color or other peculiarities. There, we know, live several communities of free men, speaking our own language, believers in our holy religion, enjoying ample scope for the exercise of industry in agriculture, commerce, and the arts; men who but a short time ago were slaves, fearful and suspicious - themselves regarded with dislike and mistrust, for whom and for whose children the future, on this earth, promised no amelioration. Here, we feel and know to be more and more diffused that cause which enlists among its friends and advocates, patriots of all sections of the union and of all parties and creeds; which prompts the slaveholder of the south to emancipate his slaves,...
