Excerpt: .to eat before she goes to bed--the other children have gone already. Then she rang a hand-bell, and when the first lady came back she said, Ask Sister Angela to come to me immediately. A few minutes later Sister Angela came into the room, and she was quite young, almost a girl, with such a sweet, sad face that I loved her instantly. This is little Mary O'Neill. Take her to the refectory and give her whatever she wants, and don't leave her until she is quiet and comfortable. Very well, Mother, said Sister Angela, and taking my hand she whispered, Come Mary, you look tired. I rose to go with her, but at the same moment Father Dan rose too, and I heard him say he must lose no time in finding a hotel, for his bishop had given him only...
