Date :2006-10. The materials will be traditional Chinese medicine nursing units into three modules & namely: the article - in the basic medical knowledge; novella - Chinese nursing procedures and methods ; next - TCM clinical care. The reason for this division & because the Chinese care is an important part of Chinese medicine & Chinese medicine theory and methods of care is to build on the theoretical system of Chinese medicine. Nursing theory that the so-called Chinese medicine theory in traditional Chinese medicine care of the extension & Chinese medicine treatment that nursing care process in the expansion & only in a slightly different focus. Therefore & this material is no longer as divided as the first version of the theory of traditional Chinese medicine care & and basic knowledge of medicine called directly. Nursing care and Western medicine difference goes without saying that modern methods of traditional Chinese medicine nursing care penetration & and clinical care medicine on the application of modern nursing skills are all indisputable facts. Therefore...
