Gurian Institute Press, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Males are struggling throughout our culture-experiencing trauma, violence, unemployment, school failure, under-motivation, and in many cases, destitution. Males are also underserved in the helping professions. Boys and men often feel that therapists, health care workers, and human services professionals are not as well informed or educated in what males need as they could be. HOW DO I HELP HIM? changes that. Written by Michael Gurian, one of the world's foremost gender experts, this groundbreaking book provides new theory, new practical models, and outcomes based strategic tools for transforming mental health services and therapeutic settings.
