Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Bishop Gore and the Catholic Claims Some seventy years ago certain minds in the Established Church were earnestly intent on searching out a via media in religion, i.e, a middle ground between what was known as Roman doctrine and mere Protestantism. In this voyage of discovery the pioneer was the illustrious Newman. To this he for some years devoted his talents, his learning, and his best energies in the hope of finding security for himself and others in the bosom of the Church in which he had been brought up, and which he still cherished as a mother. The result of it all was that he found he had to give up the task as hopeless, and he sought safety for his own soul by submitting to the Holy, Roman, and Catholic Church. His secession might well have proved the death-blow to all via media enterprise; yet since that day others have ventured upon it with hope that they might succeed where he failed. Of these not the least distinguished by his ability, learning, and...
