Eric Elder Ministries, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.31 of my favorite classical piano pieces from the 17- and 1800s, including works by: Bach, Beethoven, Chopin, Daquin, Debussy, Graupner, Handel, Haydn, Kirnberger, MacDowell, Mendelssohn, Mozart, Offenbach, Pachelbel, Petzold, and Tchaikovsky. From the introduction to the book: I love playing the piano, and I especially love playing the classics, those songs written in the 17- and 1800s. They are truly classics. When I married Lana and began looking through some of the piano books she had played since childhood, I was in heaven. To find so many songs, many of which I had only heard but never played before, it was like opening one Christmas gift after another after another. A few years ago, when I was considering writing a series of devotional messages based on the psalms from the Bible and Lana was going to read and record those psalms for the series, I thought it would be nice to pair each Scripture reading with one of the classics from her special collection. So after choosing 31 psalms that I wanted to use for the series, and having Lana record them in her beautiful reading voice, I worked my way through hundreds of classics, finding those which best fit the mood, tone, and length of each Scripture reading. While some of the songs had to be shortened a bit to fit the readings, and others had to be extended somewhat by repeating a few measures or stanzas, the songs generally fit quite well as they were originally written. When notating these songs for this book, which my family and I used for recording each of the songs in this project, I kept any musical direction to a minimum. As such, I...
