University of Plymouth Press, United Kingdom, 2010. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English,Romansh . Brand New Book. Two brothers, Filip and Matei, are growing up in a totalitarian society. Every day life is recounted through their young eyes. Their story is one of childish naivety set against a backdrop of life imposed by communism. Their world is filled with characters from children s television, broadcast by the official communist media, alongside magazines and cinema. Joe Lemonade, Giani Morandi, Rome Specs and Brooslee accentuate the absurdity and grotesqueness of their surroundings. The brothers become close through a shared love of football, supporting the same team, Dinamo Bucuresti. Ultimately, The Baiut Alley Lads is a novel about miracles that take place within a nightmare, regardless of whether they occur in an obscure lane in an obscure district of a country kept in obscurity by communist dictatorship.
