Warning in Waukesha: A Nora Hill Mystery (Paperback)

By s J Bradley

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Because of her face blindness, Nora Hill has always felt disconnected from her family and has spent her life keeping them at a distance. An argument with her one friend, Jack Terrell, leaves her hopeless and questioning her ability to connect with anyone for very long. When she breaks her leg in a freak accident, Nora is forced to live with her mother, Brenda. Nora feels trapped and powerless. Her only escape is in the hours when she gives her nephew driving lessons because no one else in the family has time. What starts out as a quick lunch break during a driving lesson turns into a question of faith when Nora realizes she may have to use her divine gift for finding lost children to locate a young woman. Having never had to find a missing adult, Nora wonders if her gift is changing or if there is something else at stake. Nora s world gets even more confusing when Jack shows up with a shocking confession and an invitation. To say accept would force her to face a demon...
