Cambridge Fellows Mysteries, Book 8 The Great War is over. Freed from a prisoner of war camp and back at St. Brides College, Orlando Coppersmith is discovering what those years have cost. All he holds dear including his beloved Jonty Stewart, lost in combat. A commission to investigate a young officers disappearance gives Orlando new direction temporarily. The deceptively simple case becomes a maze of conflicting stories is Daniel McNeil a deserter, or a herotaking Orlando into the world of the shell-shocked and broken. And his sense of Jontys absence becomes painfully acute. Especially when a brief spark of attraction for a Cambridge historian, instead of offering comfort, triggers overwhelming guilt. As he hovers on the brink of despair, a chance encounter on the French seafront at Cabourg brings new hope and unexpected joy. But the crushing aftereffects of war could destroy his second chance, leaving him more lost and alone than ever Warning: Contains sensual mm lovemaking and is a three hankie story, two of which youll need for the happy ending.
