They brought him down to Seez and after energetic treatment succeeded in reviving him. He walks today as if nothing had happened. This accident won for him the stripes of a chasseur of the first class. On one of his sleeves he wears, besides, a hunting horn won in a shooting contest last year. Not everybody has an orderly with such trimmings. Roger would have wished to be attached to Captain Larchey s company. The latter would gladly have taken him with him. But his list of officers was full and the newcomer was assigned to the Second Company, commanded by Captain Blanc-Coquand. The lieutenant of the company is busy taking care of a sprain he got in the winter maneuvers. He goes, therefore, very little to the exercises. Roger had anticipated responsibility. He gets it at once, more of...
