Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Teaching long-reining has a variety of purposes. We may want to: -Keep small ponies and donkeys active and interested. -Develop a young horse s education about voice and rein signals for walk on, halt, back up, turn left and turn right before he is old enough to ride. -Prepare our horse, pony, donkey, mule for work in harness. -Have another horse activity we can do without riding. -Build a timid horse s confidence about moving out in front, as he must do when ridden. -Keep an older or retired horse supple with low-key activities. -Be able to send the horse out ahead of us over, between and through obstacles for non-ridden Horse Agility competitions. This book isolates the foundation skills needed for long-reining and arranges them into a Training Program. On completion of the program, long-reining falls into place smoothly as all the elements are brought together. If you do not yet use positive reinforcement in the form of equine clicker training, the book includes a full chapter on how to get started safely. The final chapter includes nineteen patterns to generalize and consolidate the long-reining skills of the handler and the horse. Over a hundred illustrations plus free links to more than twenty short YouTube video clips support the written text.
